Blessed: to be happy or to have joy; to be in God's favor.

Teach: to show or to explain something.

While up on the mountain, Jesus taught the disciples the Beatitudes. They are promises of happiness or blessings because of how we live as God's children. Jesus taught that those who are poor, sad, humble, or meek (gentle) will be blessed. Heaven belongs to the "poor in spirit" (those who realize they need God). The sad will be comforted; and the meek will receive what God has promised them. Those who want to know God will learn about God. Those who are kind to others will be in heaven one day. Those who are treated badly because they love God will be happy, because they have a great reward in heaven. God will bless His children with joy because they live to follow God.
